The NZCBA JUNE 2006 NEWS

HOLIDAYS

I will be on holiday from Tuesday 18 July to Tuesday 8 August inclusive. During that period the telephone and email will be diverted to Noel Woodhall (n.woodhall@xtra.co.nz) and mail and masterpoints to Alister Stuck (acsfn@xtra.co.nz). The diversions will happen automatically so you don't need to adjust your records.

I will be cutting off for the June quarter masterpoint run very early in June in order to get it finalised before I go away.

DIRECTING EXAMS

Congratulations to those who recently passed their director exams:

Tournament:	Russell Watt	Auckland
	Allan Joseph	Kairangi
	Max Wigbout	Wellington

Don't forget – if you are at Congress this weekend, there is a Directors' Seminar on the new alerting regulations at 11.00 a.m., Sunday 2 July.

BRIDGE TEACHERS' WEEKEND

A reminder that a Bridge Teachers' weekend is being held in Christchurch on 14/15 October this year. Full details have already been sent to all Clubs and Centres. Clubs can apply to Centres for financial assistance, through the Coaching Grant Policy, to attend this weekend but applications will close with NZCBA on 31 August 2006.
